SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE FOR STUDENTS IN LAW, FORESTRY OR ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

MISSOULA --

Forrest C. Rockwood Scholarships for $500 are available to Montana residents who have successfully completed their first year at an American Bar Association-accredited law school or one year of graduate study in forestry or environmental studies.

Preference will go to law students in honor of Rockwood, an attorney in the Flathead Valley for many years.

The scholarship was established in March 1982 by Rockwood's friends and family in recognition of his contributions to his community and the field of law and of his environmental work in the Flathead Valley.

For applications and more information, call the University of Montana Financial Aid Office at 243-5373.

Completed applications should be mailed to Janice M. Cash, Valley Bank of Kalispell, P.O. Box 48, Kalispell, Mont. 59903.

The application deadline is July 1.
